YCAP

About YCAP

YCAP (formerly known as the “CYAPG”) was launched by a group of young Canadian arbitration practitioners in June 2004. The mission of YCAP is as follows:

- to promote international arbitration, particularly in Canada, among young lawyers working in private practice and in-house with corporations, government and other potential users, as well as among other interested young professionals;
- to provide training and professional development opportunities for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration; and
- to provide professional networking opportunities for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration.

The requirements for membership in YCAP are as follows:

- an interest in international arbitration and support for the mission of YCAP;
- 40 years of age or less or new to the practice of international arbitration; and
- payment of an annual membership fee.

Registration for the YCAP Inaugural Symposium
