About YCAP

YCAP was launched by a group of young Canadian arbitration practitioners in 2004. The mission of YCAP is as follows:

- to promote interest in and understanding of international arbitration, particularly in Canada, among young lawyers working in private practice and with corporations and government, as well as among other interested young professionals;
- to provide professional development opportunities and a forum for the exchange of ideas for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration; and
- to provide professional networking opportunities for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration.

Registration for the YCAP/ICDR Y&I Calgary Seminar

This event is targeted primarily at young corporate and transactional lawyers with an interest in learning more about international arbitration and drafting contractual dispute resolution clauses in the oil and gas industry.

To attend the event, please complete and return the Registration Form on Page 3. We encourage you to register early, as numbers are limited for this event. If sending by email, please use the subject line "YCAP/ICDR Y&I CALGARY SEMINAR".

There is no registration fee for this event.

A cocktail reception will follow the seminar starting at 6:00pm. Participants are welcome to stay for the opening reception of the ICDR/AIPN conference which starts at 6:30pm, also at the offices of Burnet, Duckworth & Palmer LLP. For further details on the ICDR/AIPN conference please go to:
