Disputes Arising from the Energy Transition in the US & Canada

As the energy transition continues to gain momentum in the US and Canada, what types of disputes are arising? Which investor-State disputes have been initiated? What type of construction disputes? Which types of disputes go to arbitration, and which are the ones that never do?

These and many more questions will be addressed by a distinguished panel composed of academics, damages experts, in-house counsel and commercial arbitration counsel:

Prof. Stratos N. Pahis, Brooklyn Law School (New York)

Mary Kate Wagner, BakerHostetler (New York)

Simon Braithwaite, Diales (New York)

Colin Hill, Orix (New York)

The panel discussion will be moderated by:

Hinda Rabkin, Freshfields (New York)

The event is generously hosted by:

FRESHFIELDS

4:00 – 4.30 pm | Registration

4:30 – 6:00 pm | Panel discussion

6:00 – 7:00 pm | Light refreshments

About YCAP

YCAP was launched by a group of young Canadian arbitration practitioners in 2004. The mission of YCAP is as follows:

- to promote interest in and understanding of international arbitration, particularly in Canada, among young lawyers working in private practice and with corporations and government, as well as among other interested young professionals;
- to provide professional development opportunities and a forum for the exchange of ideas for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration; and
- to provide professional networking opportunities for young lawyers and other young professionals with an interest in international arbitration.
